Lander Library Carnegie Room
Piano Use Guidelines

- 1) Before receiving access to the piano, patrons must sign the Contact/Acknowledgment Form at the main circulation desk.
- 2) Piano use is not permitted unless you have reserved the Carnegie Room for the specific purpose of playing the piano.
- 3) The piano must always be positioned on the hardwood floor, either in front of the curtain or in the backstage area. Moving the piano to the carpeted area of the Carnegie Room will result in charges to the patron or organization.
- 4) Food or drinks are not permitted on the piano.
- 5) The piano is tuned at regular times during the year. If a special tuning is requested, the requestor will pay the tuning fee.
- 6) The piano is not available for piano instruction sessions.
- 7) Every piano recital participant must read these guidelines or be instructed in these guidelines.
- 8) Please wash hands before playing the piano.
- 9) Please cover the piano after use.
